To

THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, Madras.

Sir,—

I am directed to inform you that the Government of India have decided that any person whose salary or pension is subjected to Income Tax by reduction at the time of payment after the 1st April 1903 is entitled, irrespective of the period for which the salary or pension is being paid, to claim the benefit of the extended exception from liability to pay the tax now given by section 5, sub-section (1), clause (j), of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1886 (II of 1886), as amended by Act XI of 1903. Any amounts which may have been deducted from salaries or pensions contrary to this decision should therefore be refunded.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
(Signed) R. A. MANT,
Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.
